Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) and HVAC Services for Higher Education and K-12!

We spend over 90% of our time indoors with our work, education and leisure.

Don't you think it's time to take a closer look at how indoor air quality (IAQ) impacts your operational and people costs?

When it comes to addressing your indoor air quality, HVAC/Duct cleaning and restoration projects, speed, quality and compliance shouldn't be mutually exclusive. Especially in the case of an emergency! Now higher education and K-12 along with other agencies and non-profits, can easily procure a comprehensive suite of IAQ and HVAC/Duct system solutions from Pure Air Control Services, Inc., through E&I Cooperative Services.

With E&I's Contract, #CNR01446 (LPA), Pure Air Control Services, Inc. provides IAQ testing and remediation services designed to meet the needs of your entire team, from facility and maintenance engineers, to risk management and procurement officials. Our specialized approach to problem-solving means educational institutions (and other agencies) can rely on Pure Air for world class building diagnostics, and innovative IAQ services to optimize the health and performance of facilities and HVAC/Duct systems.
